B-50 Superfort Makes Trip in Less Than Four Days; Refuels 4 Times

FT. WORTH, Tex., March 2.—(P)—An Airforce bomber today completed the first non-stop flight around the world.

The B-50 superfort "Lucky Lady II," carrying a crew of 14, arrived over Carswell Airforce base at 9:21:40 a. m., Central Standard Time, less than four time in its historic eastward flight.

The plane landed at 9:30:55 a. m., CST.

Unofficial elapsed time for the world circling trip was 94 hours, one minute; an average speed of 239 miles per hour.

It was unofficially estimated that the Lucky Lady II flew 23,452 statute miles from its takeoff in Fort Worth around the world.

Giant in The Joint

Clerks, bellhops and lobby sitters at Chicago's Bismarck hotel stared in stunned silence when Max Palmer came in for a room. The 21-year-old giant from Lyon, Miss., who stands 7 feet 8 inches and weighs 340, had to sign the register like this. Room clerk Barbara Ansel, right, looks on in awe.

Rankin Asks House Vote on Pension Bill

House Leaders And Truman Opposed Because of Costs

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(P)—Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) asked today that the House be allowed to vote on his plan for pensions for all veterans and gave this estimate of its cost over the years: $190,000,000,000.

That was the figure Rankin gave the House Rules Committee as he asked it to send the bill to the House floor for debate, preferably under procedure preventing amendments.

But the Missourians said he would not insist on a non-amendment program after Rules Committee members indicated their dissatisfaction with the bill as now drawn.

The Rules Committee has the job of deciding what bills are to be taken up in the House and under what procedure. Rankin's bill has been approved by the House Veterans Committee of which he is chairman.

House leaders and the Truman administration are opposed to the bill because of the prospective cost.

Rankin argued that part of the pension costs would be offset by a reduction in the number of old men on state pension rolls.

The bill provides for $90 a month pensions for World War One and Two veterans at the age of 65, regardless of their physical or financial condition.

Rep. Cox (D-Ga.), a Rules Committee member, remarked that some veterans "fear what it might do to the economy of the nation" to enact the bill.

When Rankin admitted that several members of Congress are drawing pensions as Spanish-American war veterans, Cox asked:

"Do you think they should?" Rankin retorted that he was not the keeper of their consciences. But, when pressed again by Cox, he said that "if they (the veterans) are in need, I'm not in favor of sending them to the poorhouse."

No Distinctions
Rep. Lyle (D-Tex.) observed that the bill makes no distinction between a man who served 90 days and one who may have spent several years in combat. That brought from Cox the comment that it is "difficult" to vote the same pension for "a fellow who spent a couple of months in a rocking chair in a hideout" and farm manager, estimated damage at $200,000.

Fifteen Thoroughbreds Lost
LEXINGTON, Ky., March 2.—(P)—Fifteen thoroughbreds, mostly weanlings and two-year-olds, died in a fire that early today destroyed a 26-stall training barn at Clifford Moore's Walnut Springs farm near here. Waller Jones, farm manager, estimated damage at $200,000.

Texas Sergeant Wanted Only Sleep After Historic Trip

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 2.—(P)—Said the chief pilot of the first plane to circle the earth without stopping:

"It just means you can fly anywhere any time."

Capt. James Gallagher of Melrose, Minn., commander and pilot of the Lucky Lady II, gathered with his men in the Carswell Air Base briefing room today a few minutes after they ended their historic flight.

Generals and colonels served hot coffee to the tired, happy fliers.

Gallagher summed up the flight in answer to questions by newsmen.

Asked if he would want to take another world trip immediately, Gallagher laughed and the crew joined in.

"Just give us a little rest and we'll be all right," the flight commander said.

Gallagher said the crew, which

Man-Woman Confess to Killing Three

Held For Higher Court Action Without Bond

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 2.—(P)—A mail order Romeo and his woman confederate who confessed killing two widows and a child in a cross country "Lonely Hearts" racket waived municipal court examination today on murder charges.

The two—swarthy, balding Raymond Martinez Fernandez, 34, and husky, thrice-married Mrs. Martha Beck, 29, were held without bond for circuit court arraignment later.

They were accused jointly in two separate Michigan warrants of the drug-and-shooting death of Mrs. Delphine Downing, 28, and the drowning of her 21-month-old daughter, Rainelle.

Bodies of the two were dug yesterday from their cement-filled basement graves in their home between here and nearby Byron Center.

White had taken no account of the wheat gift in making out his income tax return since he had understood from Drew Pearson, Washington columnist who promoted the train, that all donations would be deductible.

The government, however, took a different view.

"So far as we know, this is the only case of its kind," Lynn Broderick, U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue for Kansas, said.

Visited at Eldon Mo.
ELDON, Mo., March 2.—(P)—Mrs. Delphine Downing and her new husband visited her sister, Mrs. Dean Clawson, here two weeks ago.

Mrs. Clawson said her sister and the husband to whom she was married early in February stopped for a 2-hour visit.

The man gave his name as Charles Martin, 34, and said he was a civil engineer for a New York railroad.

With them was Martha Beck, who said she was a registered nurse and Martin's sister.

The visitors were on the way to Palisade, Neb., to see Mrs. Downing's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Price, and other relatives.

Martin, Mrs. Clawson recalled, "claimed he had been in the secret service 12 years. He said he had an apartment all ready in New York. He was supposed to be very wealthy."

Mrs. Clawson said he looked older than 34 and was "real dark complexioned."

Working on information supplied by Grand Rapids authorities, New York police last night unearthed the body of a woman in a South Ozone Park, Queens, cellar.

But Tuesday morning the second-story cow was back in the hayloft again, looking over the barnyard like Mussolini on the balcony. Back into action went the electric prod.

"We wish she'd quit," said Fuqua. "It's a lot of work."

Courtroom Jammed
Although definite identification is lacking, Fernandez told police here the body would be found to be that of Mrs. Janet Fay. He and Mrs. Beck admitted they slugged and strangled her last January.

An overflow crowd, mostly women, jammed the tiny courtroom of Judge Willard McIntyre to get their first look at the defendants.

Prosecutor Roger C. McMahon said he would carry the case through Michigan courts even if New York authorities ask for jurisdiction.

A death penalty bill now is before the Michigan legislature but the maximum penalty for conviction of first degree murder is life imprisonment. Capital punishment is authorized by New York law.

As recited by police, the Hawaiian-born Fernandez and black-haired Mrs. Beck, who weighs 200 pounds, gave a shocking story.

In Midwest
It led from the south, to the east, and the middle west as the pair, posing as brother and sister, plundered unwitting women of thousands of dollars.

Fear of disclosure led them to kill Mrs. Downing and her daughter, bright-eyed Rainelle, McMahon said.

Mrs. Fay's death was the result of Mrs. Beck's "jealousy" of the New York woman, according to the prosecution. First, however, they had secured $3,000 from her.

McMahon said the husky Mrs. Beck told of striking Mrs. Fay on the head with a pipe in a fit of jealousy and that Fernandez then strangled the woman.

Together they were said to have buried the body.

It was Fernandez' vanity that ultimately proved the pair's undoing, McMahon said.

Killed Trying To Crack Safe
KANSAS CITY, March 2.—(P)—One man was killed and another was wounded critically here early today by police who, working on a tip, caught them attempting to crack a safe in the office of a motor car company.

Earl Carlyle Harris, 22, was killed when police, concealed in a supply room of the company, opened up at short range with 12-gauge riot guns for the second man, identified as Wayne Gregerson, also 22, reached for a revolver to shoot at the officers.

Gregerson fired one shot at Clarence Raisbeck, head of the burglary unit of the police department, before he was struck in the face and chest by riot gun slugs.

Raisbeck and Lester Haupt, head of the police robbery unit, said detectives had been trailing the pair for ten days. The two had been suspected of participating in recent safe robberies here.

Police had been tipped yesterday that the two planned the burglary.

Dog Swallows The Paper Money
LONDON, March 2.—(P)—Diana Peel's six-year-old Collie, Bruce, always paid cash for the newspapers he bought her at a nearby stand.

Every day for three years, she sent him off with a penny between his teeth and he came back with a paper.

Then one day the newsdealer told her she owed him a penny.

An X-ray located the coin—in the dog's stomach.

Cut Price of Spuds
CLEVELAND, March 2.—(P)—Potatoes and gravy are only a nickel a helping now in Cleveland public school cafeteria. And the helpings are bigger than those given at the price of a dime.

The board of education announced it had pared the price of spuds in half yesterday after receiving its three carload or surplus potatoes from the department of agriculture.

Tax Farmer For Gift of Wheat

WICHITA, Kas., March 2.—(P)—A Kansas farmer has paid $9,555.28 in income tax for two carloads of wheat he donated to the friendship train.

The train traveled across the nation picking up gifts of food, clothing and other necessities for France.

David C. White, a Kingsdown, Kas., farmer paid the tax yesterday, but said he was going to fight for a refund.

White and his attorney, W. D. Jochems, estimated the wheat gift actually cost him more than $28,000.

The farmer said he had not taken the grain into account in making out his income tax return. He added that the Internal Revenue Department then figured his income tax debt at $9,037.28, plus $517.85 interest since March 15.

He said the conclusion was based on the price of wheat when he donated it. At the time it was selling for $2.65 a bushel. When White finally sold his crop, the price had dropped to $2.02.

The department said the value of the wheat given away, amounting to $19,150.67, put White into an income bracket requiring the additional levy of $9,037.28.

White had taken no account of the wheat gift in making out his income tax return since he had understood from Drew Pearson, Washington columnist who promoted the train, that all donations would be deductible.

The government, however, took a different view.

"So far as we know, this is the only case of its kind," Lynn Broderick, U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue for Kansas, said.

Labor Wants State Madison Law Repealed
JEFFERSON CITY, March 2.—(P)—Labor formally opened its drive last night to repeal what it calls crippling Missouri laws. A union delegation asked the Senate Labor committee to repeal the Madison Union Control Act passed in 1947. Tonight the fight turned to the House Labor committee for a hearing on a similar bill.

James A. Davis, secretary of the state CIO council, said the people showed in the last election they did not want laws like the Madison Act and the Taft-Hartley Act. Lawmakers who voted for them were mostly defeated, he said.

He called the law a "direct insult to the integrity of any union officer and the intelligence of the members."

Wood Attacks Law
R. T. Wood, president of the State Federation of Labor, joined Davis in attacking the law. He said it had helped no one "except some anti-union employers who were able to destroy or cripple labor."

Other speakers labeled the law unreasonable, unfair, ambiguous, unconstitutional, undemocratic and one-sided.

The Senate committee hears employers who favor the Madison law next Tuesday.

The act bars jurisdictional and sympathy strikes, secondary boycotts and strikes against government. It gives the State Industrial Commission the right to handle strike votes and make rules for dealing with labor disputes.

Sleeping Pills Use Alarming
ST. LOUIS, March 2.—(P)—Roy S. Pruitt, regional director of the Federal Pure Food and Drug Administration, said yesterday that illegal sales and use of sleeping pills in St. Louis have reached an "alarming" proportion.

Because five deaths and 47 suicide attempts last year were traced directly to the pills, he said, he had asked St. Louis police to help crack down on violators.

The pills are barbiturates, a powerful drug, and can be obtained through doctors' prescriptions. Refills are illegal. Druggists convicted of selling the pills without a separate prescription can be fined $1,000 or sentenced to a year in jail, or both.

Pruitt said that since barbiturates came under federal regulation, bootlegging of the pills has increased.

Refuse Order To Leave The American Zone
RUSSIAN STATE
It Violates Yalta, Potsdam Agreements
By The Associated Press

U. S. military police in Frankfurt today blockaded a Russian repatriation mission which had refused orders to leave the American zone of Germany.

Supplies of water, gas and electricity were cut off and telephones disconnected for the mission. Military police also were ordered to ban anyone from entering or leaving the building. This will cut off the Russian's food supply.

The mission handled the return of displaced persons to Russia.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, asked it to leave by March 1 because the number of DP's now agreeing to return to Russia is negligible.

The Russians denounced the order as a violation of the Yalta and Potsdam agreements.

Extricated by other truck drivers, who worked for several minutes to pry open a door to the demolished truck cab, Joe Reid, 31, Springfield, was taken to a hospital suffering from head, back and internal injuries. Hospital attendants described his condition as critical.

Ash Wednesday Marks The Beginning of Lenten Season
Today is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. The word Lent comes from the Latin word Lenten, meaning spring and the name has been given to the church fast before Easter. The fast, when first observed, was a short period but very strict, then three weeks, sometimes six weeks or longer. It now lasts for forty days. In the Middle Ages the Lenten season was very rigorous.

Today commences a forty day period, not including Sundays, of penance and contrition, leading up to the Easter feast, which is extremely colorful. It is observed by the Roman Catholic church and most Protestant churches. Special services are usually held each week and on designated days during this time.

Mardi Gras, which literally translated means "Fat Tuesday," is observed by a carnival the last day before Lent in France, New Orleans and some other cities. This year Brotherhood Week preceded Lent, in an effort to bring an understanding and way to live between the different doctrines and creeds of religion throughout the world.

Some churches begin Ash Wednesday by using black altar cloths. It is a common practice for people of today to pledge themselves to do without something they particularly like during this time.

In the Catholic church blessed ashes are placed on the forehead of the participants at the services today.

WASHINGTON, March 2—Only the president's inside advisers know it, but he gave a decidedly different twist to the idea they originally put up to him of stumping the country.

Some of Mr. Truman's loyal friends had suggested to him, shortly before the Jackson-Jefferson dinner, that he go on a tour of the nation in order to keep his contacts with the people, not to rap Congress.

They were frankly afraid that Truman, sitting in the rarified atmosphere of Washington and surrounded by too many yes-men, was losing his perspective. So it was suggested that instead of going to Key West for a vacation, the president go on a trip through the west perhaps to visit some water-power project or the snow-bound areas.

Mr. Truman, however, declined to give up his Key West outing, though he had spent two weeks there shortly before Christmas. And at the Jackson-Jefferson dinner, he twisted the original idea around so that his proposed trip becomes a campaign against Congress—despite the fact that the present Congress is overwhelmingly Democratic.

Social Security For Servants

President Truman's program to extend federal old-age insurance to an additional 20,000,000 persons will not slide through the house ways and means committee as easily as did the bill to extend the reciprocal-trade agreements.

Although chairman "Muley Bob" Doughton of North Carolina agreed to introduce the administration bills on social security, he explicitly did so only "as the basis for consideration and discussion."

When current hearings have been completed, the committee will then sit down in executive session to write its own bill, which will probably bear little resemblance to the Truman proposals.

For example, the president includes 5 million farmers, 3.5 million hired hands, and 2.5 million cooks, maids and other household servants in the 20,000,000 total to be covered. Yet members of Congress from rural areas, among them Speaker Sam Rayburn, are convinced that farmers are opposed to social security. And the prospect of a rebellion from an army of irate housewives, compelled to pay and collect employment taxes on their hired help, makes even the congressmen from the cities shudder a bit.

Actually, compliance with the simplified plans for collecting social security taxes from farmers and housewives would be relatively easy, but the country does not think so.

Old Age Benefits

On the other hand, increasing social security benefits will definitely be approved. However, Congress will throw out the benefit payments for both sickness of short duration (up to 26 weeks) and for extended disability. Too many people, the congressmen think, would get sick on purpose.

In addition, old-age retirement for women will probably be reduced from 65 to 60 and a beneficiary will be allowed to earn up to $50 (now $15) per month without losing the right to his government pension check.

Bureaucrats Dug Snow

The army did a great job in feeding snowbound civilians and cattle during western storms, but other civilian agencies did equal pioneering jobs with no credit at all—the interior department's bureau of land management and the agriculture department's forest service.

Inside fact is that the land bureau proceeded with rescue work at a time when the army at first refused to budge.

What happened was that on January 12, Paul L. Fickenger, regional director of the Indian service at Billings, Mont., telephoned Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, army district engineer at Omaha, asking the army for assistance. General Pick, one of the highest officers in the engineers corps and already nominated as chief of engineers, refused to budge.

He said he was most sympathetic with any plan to help snow-bound people and cattle, but he had no authority to act. Also he said he had no funds allocated for this purpose.

Meanwhile, the bureau of land management also lacked funds or authority. Without waiting for word from Washington, however, its officials proceeded to spend money anyway. Figuring that Washington would reimburse them later, they worked round the clock with no figuring in of overtime.

Taking a chance that Washington later would pay the bill they contracted for the snow-removal equipment, etc., which were not authorized. Later, the money came through. But it was the so-called civilian bureaucrats who had the courage to act when the army hesitated.

Civil Rights For Housing

Wry-witted Sen. Ralph Flanders, Vermont Republican, has introduced a new term—"horse shedding"—into the dignified process of lawmaking.

During a closed-door huddle over the housing bill, Flanders suggested that they get down to "horse shedding." This he explained is a New England term for gathering in the horse shed when a controversy gets deadlocked and doing some horse trading on both sides.

The Democratic senators snapped up Flanders' suggestion and spent the rest of the afternoon "horse shedding." By give and take, they patched together a strong housing bill acceptable to the majority of both Democrats and Republicans. The only hold-outs were the never-say-budge friends of the real estate lobby. Republican Sen. Harry Cain of Washington and John Bricker of Ohio.

At one point, Bricker warned he would try to amend the housing bill on the senate floor to require a non-segregation policy wherever public housing is built. Bricker didn't say so, but it was quite obvious he had in mind wrecking the housing program by arousing a northern battle over civil rights.

All of which caused one Democratic senator to whisper: "Cain and Bricker want to eliminate discrimination all right—but by giving nobody homes."

Behind the Revolt in Bolivia

The attempted military coup in Bolivia on February 19, which was frustrated through prompt and vigorous action by President Enrique Hertzog's government, bore the all-too-familiar trademark "Made in Argentina."

In this case, however, a new and ominous touch was added: Several high ranking Peruvian officers, collaborating closely with Argentine militarists and Bolivian Fascists, were directly involved in the plot.

As a result, President Hertzog sent a bluntly worded note to Peru's totalitarian army regime calling for action to check "subversive activities against Bolivia which are being carried forward in Peruvian territory."

This protest was strictly for the record, however. Hertzog is well aware that the military rulers of Peru are now fully committed to aiding the Argentine plan for establishment of army regimes throughout South America.

He knows, too—as does every well informed statesman and diplomat in this hemisphere—that the present political crisis in Buenos Aires will not interfere with these projects. No matter what happens to Juan D. Peron, the army will continue to run Argentina and to carry on its international conspiracies.

No Striped Pants Diplomat

When President Galo Plaza of Ecuador visited Colombia recently, government officials of the latter country made a notable concession to their guest's dislike of pomp and circumstance.

Five years ago Plaza, then Ecuadorian ambassador to the U. S., got headlines by declaring that he was an enemy of striped pants and would not wear them.

Last month, while plans were being drawn up in Bogota to receive the neighboring republic's chief executive, somebody remembered that story and the Colombian ambassador in Quito was instructed to check on it.

President Plaza readily confirmed the statement and added that he hadn't changed his mind.

House Passes Education Bill

Measure Calls For A Total of $80,000,000

JEFFERSON CITY, March 2—(AP)—The Missouri House of Representatives passed a whopping $80,000,000 education bill Tuesday an ascent it to the senate.

The vote was 127 to 0, with earlier opposition failing to continue on the final vote.

The measure provides $69,148,213 as one third of the expected general revenue, for allotment to public schools. There were three attempts to increase that figure last week but all were sidetracked by the Democratic majority.

But Rep. J. D. Swiers (R) of Greene county, who wanted to hike the allotment to three-eighths of the general revenue, — adding about $8,600,000 to the figure for public schools, said he still would try to get a hike for schools later.

Meanwhile the House appropriations committee approved another in the series of eight money bills.

It provides for operation of the huge revenue department and allots gasoline tax for motor registration money to the state highway department.

Several small changes were approved by the committee but they increased the amount out of general revenue only $30,000.

New Orleans Goes to Church

NEW ORLEANS, March 2.—(AP)—New Orleans put away its clown suit today and went to church.

The city, which blends a strong love of fun-making with deep religious feeling, turned from the abandon of yesterday's Mardi Gras to the prayers and penance of Ash Wednesday.

In ashes of burned palm leaves Roman Catholic priests traced crosses on foreheads that yesterday were gay with greasepaint, or hidden coyly behind masks.

Protestant ministers gave holy communion and conducted special devotions for the first day of Lent.

New Orleans was ready for the forty days of self-denial between now and Easter. Behind it was the gayest Mardi Gras spree since the European carnival customs were imported here, back in Colonial times.

THE STORY: Quite Show Wins as an expense-paid vacation at a swank resort owned by Mr. Harsel, witness a murder. When they find themselves deeply involved, they try to unravel the mystery. But Sin is nearly kidnapped by Gagner and Vernon, two of Harsel's employees, and John is dragged at a gambling ranch where he was taken by Faye Jordan. When they are brought together again by Mr. Trim, representative of the quite show sponsor, Johnny says, "That does it! That's enough for us, Sin."

MR. TRIM bade them goodbye on the cement walk that led through the palms to the front entrance of the Las Dunas. Sin daily refused to enter the lobby where Gagner or Vernon might be waiting. After a moment's thought, John Henry agreed.

So the Conovers sauntered innocently along the front of the hotel's south wing. Then, with a hurried backward glance, they turned the corner and plunged into the shrubbery that fringed the building.

"Do you think anybody saw us, Johnny?"

"Hope not," muttered John Henry. He pushed a path through the clashing branches for his wife. "We'll get the baggage to our car and beat it," he outlined. "I'll phone what we know to Lay from some other town. The main thing is to get you safe, Sin."

Within view was the curving path which would guide them to the cottages. It was silent and deserted.

Suddenly Sin stopped in her tracks and squeezed his arm hard. "Johnny—look!"

Slouched on the porch of Cottage 14 was a familiar uniformed figure. It was Vernon. He was watching the path and his mournful face split into a pitting grin at the sight of the Conovers. He got to his feet.

JOHN HENRY hesitated only a second. Then he grabbed Sin by the elbow and whirled her around. "Back to the hotel," he said under his breath. "Keep going!"

"Gagner," she panted. "He might be there!"

"The car then—" decided John Henry. They shifted direction and trotted along the north wing of the hotel between a square-cut hedge and the stucco wall. When the hedge ended there was some clashing shrubbery and then they burst suddenly into the Las Dunas parking lot to run for their car. The Chevrolet was beautiful in familiarity.

John Henry halted his glad reach for the door handle. He felt in his left-hand trousers pocket, then rummaged through all his other pockets.

"What is it?" cried Sin.

"The keys. When Faye searched me, she stole the keys to our car!" Sin let out a wail of panic. John Henry gnawed his lips. Then he pulled her along the silent row of automobiles.

"Let's look for one with the keys in it," he snapped.

The Conovers galloped down the double-parked row, glancing nervously in through car windows. They had rounded the row and were starting back toward the shrubbery on the other side when the shout came.

They stopped as if rooted. It was Gagner's voice and it came from the opposite side of the gallery of automobiles.

"Vernon," he was calling, "get a move on! They must be around here somewhere!"

SIN gave a little moan and sank toward the ground as if her legs had melted. John Henry held her up with one hand. After a final look around at the uncooperative surroundings, he opened the car door nearest his hand—a convertible coupe with the top up—and thrust his trembling wife inside. He crept after her and shut the door quietly behind him.

"See 'em?" Vernon's question came from four or five cars away. Gagner replied something that John Henry couldn't make out. Sin was curled along the red-leather seat, breathing in little whimpers.

"Okay," Vernon's voice came again. "I'll look over here, but it's no use."

"Johnny—" Sin began in a loud whisper. "The keys—" John Henry jumped and turned cold. He jabbed her. "Quiet!" he breathed. Then he whipped his head around. "What's that about keys?"

Sin pointed a finger. From the dashboard, a chain with several keys trailed down from another key which was half-buried in the ignition switch. The feeling surged over John Henry that he had been here before. He craned his head at the registration slip and his lips tightened. The name on the white slip of paper was Faye Jordan.

"I might have known," he muttered. Sin squeezed his arm. Gravel ground against gravel as shoes crunched closer to them. Somebody—either Vernon or Gagner or both—was coming slowly up the column of cars. John Henry cautiously wormed under the steering wheel and turned the ignition on.

The coupe jolted as a body leaned against it and a freckled hand trailed along the window ledge. John Henry made a lightning calculation and went into motion before his reason had time to argue. His right foot kicked the starter. His shoulders shoved into view and he drove his left fist straight at Vernon's startled face.

Vernon's profane surprise was just a squawk as he fell with a crash into the fender of the next car.

The engine exploded into life with a confident roar. Sin, hunched on the floor, was scrambling for the emergency brake. John Henry threw in the clutch and the Mercury leaped forward, gravel spurring from its rear wheels.

Unemployment Less This Year

"Unemployment in the Sedalia area closely follows the seasonal pattern of last year," O. R. Catron of the Division of Employment Security said today.

"Comparison of job placement and benefit payments in the Sedalia area for January and February of 1949 with those of January and February of 1948 indicates somewhat less unemployment this year than last year. The state and national pattern indicates an increase of unemployment over last year."

Mr. Catron released the following figures of activities in the Sedalia area during January and February of this year as compared with the same months in 1948:

	1949	1948
New claims	393	323
Job openings received	88	89
Placed in job	78	73
Total unemployment	1325	1135
ment	1590	1615

These figures show employment to be increasing in the Sedalia area comprising Benton, Johnson, Morgan and Pettis counties. Recalled construction work, recall of workers to local plants and the opening of the farming season is expected to further reduce the number of unemployed during the next few months.

The local office that a farm labor program is in operation and will continue to serve farmers and farm laborers as well as industrial establishments and workers in the area.

DRUGGISTS. Chemists cannot make GEO-MINERAL. It comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO dose, NO alcohol, NO oil, ONLY Nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

Wonder Minerals

FOR THOUSANDS of years sufferers, on advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to get cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there regularly twice a year.

WE HAVE all heard of the miraculous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece, where, according to legend Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer, and can not go to the mineral springs, try GEO-MINERAL, which contains a blend of the same minerals that can be found at the world's best springs. The minerals in it may work miracles.

Amazing Results
WATCH your elimination from your bowels two or three days after you start using GEO-MINERAL. The waste, black as coal, will break away and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, and feel the relief. Be sure to watch for all this to realize the priceless value of GEO-MINERAL.

GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in the intestines. It gets down to the root, cleaning and purifying, throwing away poisons—gas, toxins and bloaters. Not like physics, oils and cathartics do, but in a Natural, harmless, safe way.

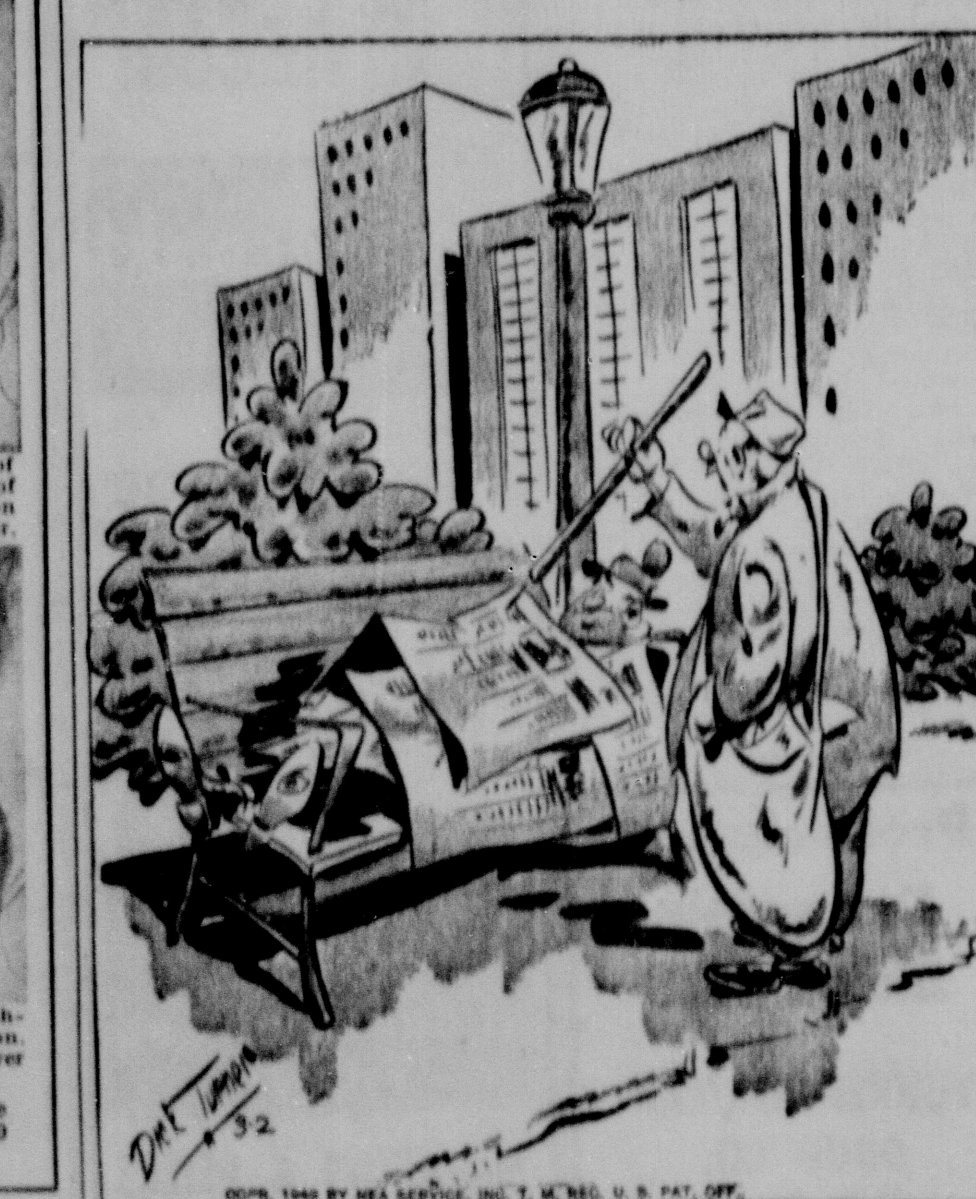

100% Guaranteed!
WE URGE you to try GEO-MINERAL. Go to your drug store NOW and get one bottle. Use it seven days. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money in full.

TRY IT! It may be the remedy you NEED! ... and making the best investment for your health. It may do wonders for you—make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

Optimist Club Hears Talk by Fire Agent

E. K. Buckland, Special Fire Agent, of the Standard Fire Insurance Company, was the guest speaker today noon at the Optimist club meeting held at the Bothwell hotel.

G. P. Darnell, program chairman, announced the speaker and then turned the introduction over to Harry Seeger, local insurance man.

Mr. Buckland stated many disastrous fires have occurred over the country in recent years, and he gave demonstrations to show how they could have been prevented. Using miniature buildings and typical circumstances he demonstrated what actually happens when explosive substances are improperly handled, also how the overloading of electrical circuits can cause fires. With a miniature cotton covered the Christmas tree Mr. Buckland demonstrated how effective the fireproofing of cloth is. The part treated with the chemical was unharmed while the untreated half went up in flames.

Charles W. Hanna Led Songs
At the opening of the meeting Charles W. Hanna led the members in several songs. Mrs. W. L. Monagan accompanied the group at the piano.

The guests were: Harold Jacobs, guest of Patrick Darnell; Charles R. Hanna, guest of Charles W. Hanna; D. Wayne Brown and Clinton Black, guests of Harry Seeger.

W. E. Sears, director of Training Schools for the State Department of Health and Welfare, will be the guest speaker next week.

Man-Woman Confess to Killing Three

doing, police said.

Mrs. Downing Suspicious
He bought a new toupee and Mrs. Downing became suspicious. McMahon said he was told.

The widow, whose husband was killed a year ago when a train hit his truck, had been their hostess for several weeks. There was a plan for all to move to California, meanwhile selling the Downing property.

McMahon said Fernandez and Mrs. Beck gave a formal statement telling how Mrs. Downing and her child were killed.

The mother was drugged with sleeping pills, then shot to death by Fernandez and buried in a shallow grave in the basement. The child was drowned.

"I undressed the girl," McMahon quoted Mrs. Beck, "and, holding her by the feet, I put her head in one of the tubs of water we had hauled out of the mother's grave."

Neighbors Alarmed
The mother was slain last Saturday and the daughter on Monday.

Alarm of neighbors over Mrs. Downing's disappearance led to a police investigation and the subsequent arrests.

Fernandez and Mrs. Beck themselves met through a correspondence club. She was then living in Pensacola, Fla.

They met in New York in 1947 and laid their plans to tour the nation and bilk women contacted through "Lonely Hearts" clubs. McMahon said they told him.

Another Investigation
GREEN FOREST, Ark., March 2.—(AP)—Was an Arkansas woman another victim of a balding mail order Romeo who is said by the Michigan authorities to have admitted killing three persons?

Sheriff Ami Howerton of Carroll county said today he has reopened the case of the strange death of Mrs. Myrtle Young, 48, at the request of Prosecutor Roger C. McMahon of Byron Center, Michigan.

Howerton said McMahon had requested that the body of Mrs. Young be exhumed, but didn't know whether the request would be complied with.

Mrs. Young, a heavy-set divorcee, died Aug. 26, 1948, after selling her hotel here and going to Chicago to marry a man she had met through a matrimonial agency.

Hospital Report
At the state hospital in Little Rock, where Mrs. Young died, officials said the cause of death was heart disease, but that she suffered a variety of other ailments. They said they found she had suffered a cerebral hemorrhage several weeks before her death, but that they found no external injuries.

Howerton said he was seeking to determine whether the man was Raymond Martinez Fernandez, 34, held with a woman in Grand Rapids, Mich., in connection with the deaths of three persons.

The sheriff said Mrs. Young gave the name of the man she thought she married in Chicago as "Raymond C. Martin," but that no record of such a marriage had been found.

Wired For Money

Howerton said after reaching Chicago, Aug. 12, Mrs. Young wired a bank in Green Forest to send her funds she had on deposit and placed the money in a joint account in a Chicago bank. Two thousand dollars, the sheriff said, was spent for a car.

A woman later withdrew the remainder of the money in the account. Mrs. Young never was able to give a coherent story of events which occurred after she reached Chicago. She was found in a Springfield, Mo., bus station Aug. 18, suffering a nervous condition. She was placed in the state hospital.

Howerton said Mrs. Young sold her hotel for $6,000 at the urging of her suitor. A brother of Mrs. Young, Louis Sutterfield of Green Forest, said his sister first met her suitor at Springfield, Mo., a short time before she went to Chicago.

one who spent his time under enemy fire.

The rules group indicated that it would be in no hurry to send the bill to the House floor, although there is no doubt that it eventually will clear it.

Without taking action, the Rules Committee recessed its hearing until Friday.

Skirmish Over Interest Bill

JEFFERSON CITY, March 2.—(AP)—Opponents of high interest rates in Missouri won a preliminary skirmish in the House of Representatives today.

They got the House to jerk a lenders' regulatory bill out of the committee which last night approved bills setting an interest maximum of 27 per cent a year.

Rep. Ray Adams (D) of Reynolds county, chairman of the commerce committee, defended his group's action. He said the committee approved the one set of interest rate bills but held up the so-called Roos bills for further consideration.

But Rep. Lawrence K. Roos (R) of St. Louis, whose interest code would cut a top of 24 per cent a year on interest, said he figured the committee was trying to bury his measures in favor of those carrying a higher interest rate.

Truman Meets Business Men

CLEVELAND, March 2.—(AP)—The Cleveland Plain Dealer said today President Truman has been holding secret night sessions on the nation's economic condition with "industrial and financial bigwigs."

In a dispatch from its Washington bureau, Reporter Fletcher Knebel wrote:

"The President, it was learned, has summoned business leaders to Blair House, his temporary abode, and quizzed them closely on economic trends."

"In the last three weeks, there have been four after-dark meetings at Blair House with men prominent on Wall Street, in automobile manufacturing, equipment lines and basic industry."

Ten All-New Acts in Fox Talent Quest

Ten all-new acts will grace the stage of the Fox Theatre Thursday night in the fourth of the coast-to-coast "Talent Quests" for stars of tomorrow. To the delight of capacity audiences, competition to advance to the local finals and gain another round against Springfield, Kansas City and west coast appearances has become keener with every show.

Additional information received on the Windsor girls' trio reveals that they bill themselves as "Two Sharps and a Flat" and plan to do their arrangement of "Now Is the Hour." The trio is composed of Bobby Dean and Betty Lou Brockway, 19 and 17 respectively, and Dorothy Perry, 19, and is accompanied by Ann Saffington.

Ernest Mulberry, 1896 South Prospect avenue, a veteran tenor balladeer, has joined the cast of Thursday night's show and will sing "La Paloma." Joyce Hearn, accordionist, Warrensburg, has advised that she will not be able to participate in this week's show and will appear at a later date. However, the accordion spot has been capably filled by personable Billy Schwenck, 17 year old student at Smith-Cotton high school, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Schwenck, 1517 South Barrett avenue.

Western Group

Another late addition to Thursday's show, bringing the cast to twenty people, are the "Ozark Serenaders," all-alleged western vocal and instrumental group composed of two guitars and a mandolin. Joe and Bill Fisher, 511 South Engineer avenue, and Ernest Richardson, Route 1, Smithton, are the "Ozark Serenaders" and will offer a medley of hill-billy and boogie favorites.

Also in the week's cast are Craig Brouther, youth pianist; Barbara Brown, teen-age vocalist; Laura Fairfax, black light dance specialist; Barbara Jane Salmons, cowgirl vocalist; Gale Williams, hula specialty; and Jane Knight, song and dance specialty.

The two winning acts from tomorrow night's show will join the growing group of finalists for the first three "Talent Quests" and will appear again in "Talent Quest Final," to be held at the Fox theatre Thursday night, March 24.

Plant Food Program Held

A Plant Food Program for Missouri was the subject of a farmers' meeting at the court house in Sedalia, Tuesday night. This meeting was called by the Pettis County Farm Bureau. Previously the directors of the County Farm Bureau had authorized C. S. Arnold, president of the Farm Bureau to call this meeting as the second step in the program now being launched in Missouri by the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation.

The group Tuesday night voted to hold a public meeting Friday night, March 18, in the Assembly room in the court house in Sedalia. All those interested in a program to make available undeveloped sources of phosphate, and potash in high analysis fertilizer are invited to attend this meeting.

This program as proposed will increase the tonnage of fertilizer available that have 40 pounds or more of plant food in a 100 pound sack. Such a program is designed to reduce the cost per pound of plant food to the user in addition to making more fertilizer available. Forty pounds means about twice as much as the most common fertilizer now being sold. Doubling the amount per sack means less freight, less hauling to the farm, less bagging, and reduced labor in applying the fertilizer.

"Who pays the taxes?" he asked. The committee decided to wait until next week to act on another bill offered by Rep. Tom Shockey of Pulaski county, another Democrat.

It provides that any Missourian over 65 would be eligible no matter how much property he owned or whether he lives with wealthy relatives. Only his own income could be considered in establishing his need.

Full Crew Bill Offered House

JEFFERSON CITY, March 2.—(AP)—A full crew bill for railroads operating in Missouri was offered in the house today by Rep. Ben Meeks (D) of Oregon county.

The measure provides that no railroad operating freight lines in the state could employ less than one engineer, a fireman, conductor and three brakemen on each train. It would not apply to lines of 50 miles or less or to trains having less than 25 cars.

A crew composed of an engineer, fireman, conductor, two brakemen or a flagman and a brakeman would be required on all passenger trains. The exception here is for lines of 100 miles or less or less than three cars.

Crews at yards or terminals would have to have at least one engineer, a fireman, a foreman and three helpers except on lines 100 miles or less.

Meeks said several states, including Arkansas, now have such a law. It is a perennial in the Missouri legislature.

'Pure Politics' States Morse

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—Secretary of Labor Tobin's renewed opposition to amending the Truman labor bill was termed "pure politics" today by Senator Morse (R-Ore).

"The labor leaders and Mr. Tobin must know that many democratic senators are saying privately that they fully expect and hope the bill will be amended, and it certainly will be," Morse said.

Tobin discussed his position last night, after another conference with Senator Elbert D. Thomas, chairman of the senate labor committee.

"I want the bill exactly as it is," Tobin told reporters.

The measure would repeal the Taft-Hartley law and replace it with a modified Wagner act.

Thomas also reaffirmed his opposition to amending the bill, which he is sponsoring. He repeated that changes would be "bad strategy."

Will of Woman Found Dead Filed

The will of the late Mrs. Anna R. Grant, found dead in a swamp near the Albia bridge southeast of Sedalia, has been filed in probate court. Kansas to Make Liquor Legal TOPEKA, Kas., March 2.—(AP)—Kansas, who consume $60,000,000 worth of liquor annually by official estimates, are about to make the stuff legal.

Almost any day now the state is due to abandon its 69-year-old prohibition law. In its place will be a control act legalizing the manufacture and sale of intoxicants.

Saloons will be banned. Liquor will be obtainable only in packages from privately-owned, state-licensed stores selling intoxicants only.

That much already has been approved by both branches of the state legislature.

But both the senate and house are at loggerheads over local option provisions, division of revenue and where the liquor can be consumed.

Kansas voted 422,204 to 358,310 last November to repeal prohibition. Sixty of the state's 103 counties remained in the dry column as major cities turned out the bulk of repeal votes.

Important Events In World News

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—House Republicans lined up today behind their own plan to cut taxes as a counter proposal to President Truman's request for $4,000,000,000 in additional revenue.

Without taking a definite stand on general taxes such as those on incomes, the GOP leadership came out strongly for cuts in excise taxes. These are imposed on train fares, telephone tolls, movie tickets, etc.

The Republicans proposed the reduction as "the first order of business" for the 81st Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah) said today President Truman hopes the Senate will decide promptly its fight over an anti-filibuster rule.

Thomas, chairman of the Senate Labor Committee, talked to reporters after a call at the White House. He said most of the conversation dealt with the current southern filibuster against changing the Senate rules to choke off debate.

The president two days ago called for a showdown battle on the issue.

Thomas said he is anxious to get a quick decision and the president agreed with him.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—The Hoover Commission today proposed "major improvements" in the operation of the Veterans Administration. It laid special emphasis on tightening VA education and insurance programs.

The commission reported poor management and waste in the education setup, inefficiency and delay in handling insurance problems and "serious internal organizational defects" in the agency as a whole.

In the ninth of its series of 15 reports to Congress, the Government Reorganization group headed by former president Herbert Hoover offered six recommendations for improving the VA setup. The result, it said, would be "considerable savings." It did not mention an amount.

Suspended Pending An Investigation

ST. LOUIS, March 2.—(AP)—A. H. Fleming, 47, a deputy tax assessor for eight years, has been suspended for 30 days pending investigation of a charge he asked $200 from a man who wanted appointment to the fire department.

The suspension was ordered yesterday by City Tax Assessor Eugene M. Guise. The civil service commission will make the investigation.

In a sworn statement, Harold Kendall, 33, said he was directed to Fleming by a committeewoman friend. He didn't have $200, he said, and he was appointed to the fire department through regular civil service procedure.

Freight Trains Collide in Kansas

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., March 2.—(AP)—Two freight trains collided near here today at a siding, derailling and splintering seven cars and delaying railway traffic between here and Kansas City.

The collision occurred as a northbound Missouri Pacific met a southbound Chicago Great Western as it was pulling onto the passing track at Cochrane, three miles south of here.

First reports indicated that the unidentified fireman of the Missouri Pacific train was injured slightly.

Seven cars in all left the tracks. Six of them were badly splintered. One jumped the tracks and nose dived into an adjoining field. The Missouri Pacific locomotive was slightly damaged also.

Welch Against Pension Bill

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—Rep. Welch (D-Mo) today denounced the Veterans' pension bill by Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) as "an octopus that would almost strangle the nation into bankruptcy."

The bill would give veterans of both world wars a monthly pension of $90 when they reach 65.

Welch asserted in a statement that Rankin introduced his bill "to get even with the administration." Early in the present session of congress Rankin was maneuvered out of the house committee on which he had served many years.

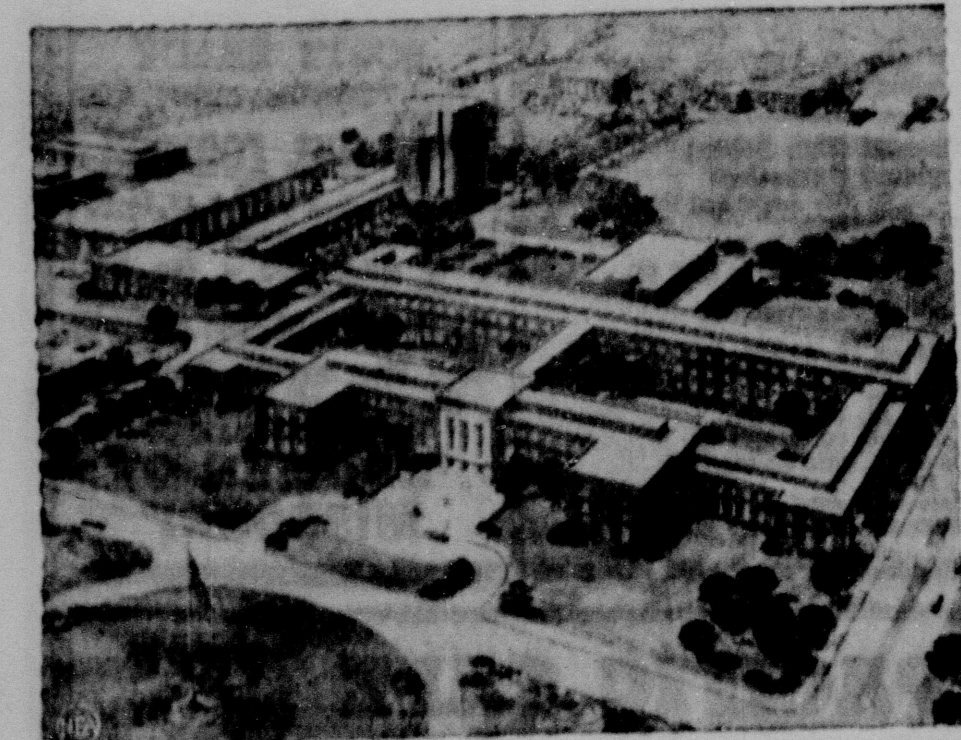

Rankin's only comment in reply was, "Who is Welch? I do not know him."

Welch, a new member of congress, also lashed out at "wild spending in government," saying he

Navy Wages Push-Button War In $35 Million Ordnance Lab

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WHITE OAK, Md. —(NEA)—Push-button warfare is safe, fun and comparatively cheap the way they wage it in the navy's fantastic new $35,000,000 ordnance laboratory.

Occupying a 938-acre tract in White Oak, just 12 miles from the White House, it's probably the most heavily guarded installation in the Washington area.

It's the most modern and revolutionary laboratory of its kind in the world. In its crazy assortment of giant tunnels, tanks and tubes, every secret and outlandish weapon that the scientists have dreamed up will be tested.

There's a huge, pipe-like affair about a quarter of a mile long and four feet in diameter used for a missile range. Any altitude can be simulated by changing pressures and temperatures in the tube to determine the flight characteristics through any kind of atmosphere. At regularly spaced intervals there are glass openings for taking pictures of the missile in flight.

Another test firing range looks like a big, long hall. Super-fast cameras along one side take pictures of any sized projectile in flight, the whole length of the range. Continuous pictures of the flight of a bullet have never been possible before.

There's a 150-ton pressure tank, the only one of its kind in existence, 38 feet long, nine feet in diameter, made of steel five inches thick. It actually stretches under pressures up to 2000 pounds per square inch. It is used to test hulls, torpedoes, mines and diving gear.

A 75-foot steel drop tower tests fuses on projectiles which weigh up to 1000 pounds. The world's largest anechoic room, three stories high, is completely "dead"—soundproof. Sirens, microphones and acoustic air fuses are tested in this room, as well as the effect of explosions and unusual air waves on the human ear.

This "dream" lab also has the world's most powerful X-ray testing gear, including a 10,000-600-volt betatron. Able to penetrate 20 inches of steel, it will be used to study the insides of captured mines and torpedoes, and for detecting flaws in various steel mechanisms.

The whole fabulous layout of 50 buildings represents a triumph of construction and design. The design job was done by the architectural firm of Eggers and Higgins. Malcolm Rice, chief of their Washington office, supervised the job. He faced some weird problems that even the navy experts themselves weren't sure could be solved.

One group of buildings had to be absolutely non-magnetic for testing magnetic mines and navigation instruments. Rice couldn't use any iron and steel in it. He had to substitute copper nails, concrete and plastic plumbing materials, modern beams and porcelain light switches. He had to specify that the sand that went into the bricks and concrete be screened to keep out particles of iron oxide.

One building in this group is wired with all kinds of electric circuits to duplicate terrestrial magnetic fields, a facility that could be used in connection with research on space ships. Most spectacular of all the buildings is the supersonic wind tunnel, which can produce air speeds up to 500 miles per hour. Most of it is built from actual parts of the famous Nazi supersonic tunnel at Peenemunde in the Baltic, where most of the basic research was done on the V-2.

Working with navy engineers and German scientists, Rice was able to make many improvements over the Nazi version. The tunnel operates by exhausting the air out of a metal sphere and then letting atmospheric pressure force it back into the sphere through the testing section. Rice doubled the size of the sphere to a diameter of 52 feet, thereby greatly increasing the air speeds it can produce.

One strange problem that confronted Rice was that workers on the Nazi tunnel had periodically lost their memory. Finally Nazi doctors had discovered that it was caused by vapor from mercury that had escaped from the various measuring devices and seeped into the floor. Rice had to design a floor absolutely free of any cracks or joints where mercury could collect.

Another problem was the deafening noise the Nazi tunnel made. It was so loud it shattered glass for miles around. He licked this by designing elaborate sound-proof buildings. Vibration was another problem, which was licked by running the tunnel through seven different buildings, each with its own foundation.

Other construction features include movable steel partitions in most of the buildings to accommodate testing of different sized

Life Term Killing Farmer

WICHITA, Kas., March 2—(AP)—William J. Andrews, Jr., ex-convict and former carnival worker—drew life imprisonment Tuesday for the "panic" slaying of a retired Kansas farmer.

Waiving jury trial, he pleaded guilty to first degree murder of Roy C. Woolf, 69, Cheney, Kas.

As he left the courtroom the slender, be-spectacled Andrews—who might have been given death by hanging—told a reporter: "It feels better to have told the truth."

An hour's testimony to fix the place and time of death and identity of the victim followed Andrews' plea.

Eyes downcast, Andrews rarely looked at the witnesses. His neck muscles worked but he did not look up when his victim's only son, Milo Woolf, 44, pointed to him as the man who visited the family farm the Saturday before the slaying.

Clark Owens, court-appointed attorney for Andrews, did not cross-examine the witness. He offered no defense testimony.

At the hearing's conclusion, he urged District Judge William J. Wertz to be "merciful and lenient." "Playing with" his 38 revolver as he sat visiting with Woolf in Woolf's trailer in a north Wichita court the afternoon of Feb. 9, Owens said, Andrews "accidentally" shot Woolf.

"He didn't know the gun was loaded."

Then, Owens said, Andrews became "panicky" with fear—shot Woolf twice more and beat him on the head.

As an ex-convict, he said, Andrews "knew he didn't have a chance" to prove the shooting was accidental.

Flue Burned Out

A burning flue caused a fire run Tuesday morning at 9:44 at the residence of Mrs. Flora Garrett, 408 North Ohio avenue.

No damage resulted in this blaze, which was number 43 of the year.

Gen. Marshall To Active List

WASHINGTON, March 2—(AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, former secretary of state, has been restored to the active list, the army announced Tuesday.

President Truman approved the restoration, the army said, which does not give General Marshall any active duty assignment or make any changes in his pay and allowances.

General Marshall was voluntarily placed on the retired list to accept appointment as secretary of state.

Army officials said General Marshall has been put back on the active list at his own request. He was in New Orleans today for the Mardi Gras.

Two 'Champs' Likely to Succeed Louis

Wild Scramble Touched Off When Heavyweight Quit

By Jack Hand

MIAMI, Fla., March 2—(AP)—Two world heavyweight boxing "champions" and a bitter brawl for financial control of the scrambling trade are the likely result of Joe Louis' decision to re-retire and become a promoter.

The two "champs" probably will emerge from this scramble: 1. Winner of a 15-round Ezzard Charles-Jersey Joe Walcott bout, to be promoted by Louis and his associates in June, will be recognized by the National Boxing Association.

2. Jack Solomons, British promoter, will claim the title for the survivor of a series involving Lee Savold, Bruce Woodcock and Freddie Mills.

Louis touched off this wild scramble yesterday in surprising fashion when Abe Green, NBA commissioner, made public a letter in which the Brown Bomber formally resigned as champion.

Glad to Retire

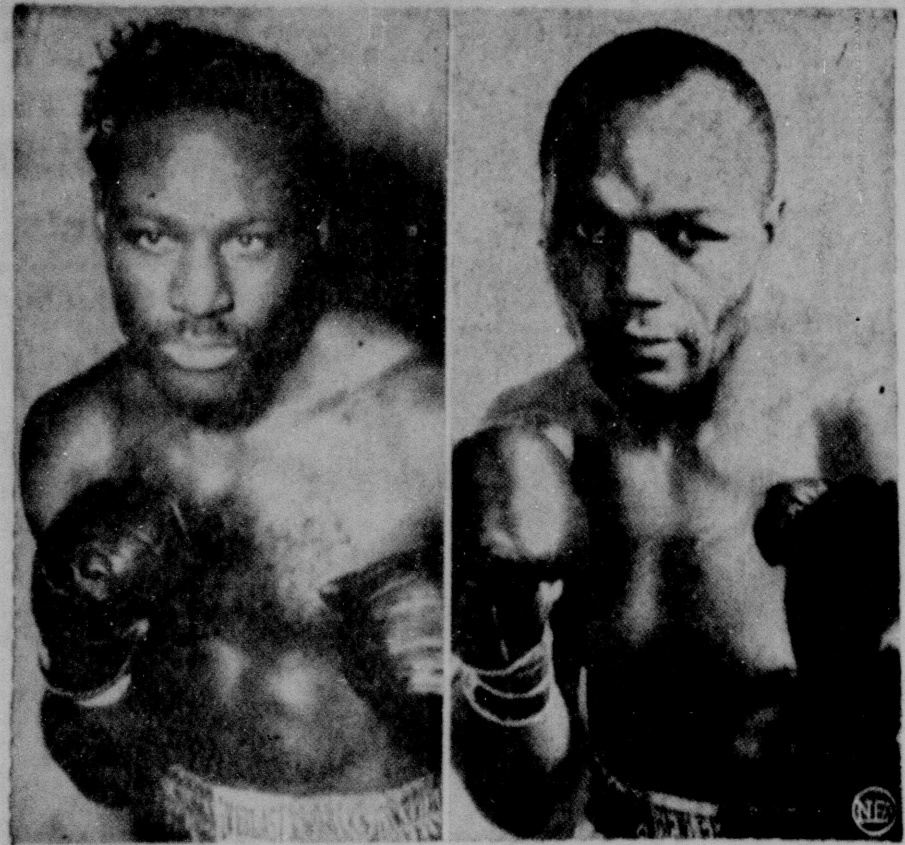

In his letter to Greene, Louis wrote that he had entered a partnership with Arthur M. Wirtz and James D. Norris to form the International Boxing Club. He asked for and was given permission by Greene to run the Walcott-Charles fight for the championship in June.

"I am certain you know how sorry I must be to let the championship go in this way," wrote Louis to Greene, "I have held out for a long time and I won it in the ring. I expected to lose it the same way I won it. This is the way champions should be made."

Louis told reporters here he had boarded a plane for a Nassau exhibition, "I'm glad to retire. It takes a great load off my mind. I could see that I couldn't fight any more and rather than lose the title in the ring, I decided to quit."

Louis, youngest ever to win the heavyweight title when he stopped Braddeck in 1937 at the age of 23, earned $3,887,323.72 in his career according to Ring magazine.

Will Fight For Louis' Crown

Last Week's Wrestlers to Seek Revenge

Two Will Battle Tonight in Ring To a Finish

Tonight's Wrestling Card

At The Armory
Feature Match—Sonny Myers, 230, St. Joseph, vs. Jimmy Coffield, 223, Kansas City. Best two out of three falls to a finish.

Semifinal Match—The Red Phantom vs. Ken Kenneth, 230, Auckland, New Zealand. Best two out of three falls, or 45-minute time limit.
Special Match—Lucky Simunovich, 227, Hawaii, vs. Lou Newman, 240, Canada. One fall, or a 30-minute time limit.
First match tonight starts at 8:30 p.m. Referee—Jay Steele.

Sonny Myers will set out tonight to get his revenge against the rough treatment accorded him by Jimmy Coffield in the Armory wrestling ring last week. Myers meets Coffield in a wrestle to a finish that features tonight's American all-star card.

Myers was knocked out during last week's battle when Coffield rammed Sonny's head into the ring post. Returning in a graggy condition from the head blow, Sonny was an easy victim for Coffield's forearm assaults. Sonny lost the fall shortly afterwards.

Midway through the second fall, Myers returned Coffield's post-ramming tactics, but the time limit expired before Sonny could finish the job and even up the match at 1-fall apiece. However, in tonight's skirmish there will be no time limit barrier to hamper Sonny's determined bid to oust Coffield from the title contender ranks.

The mysterious masked Red Phantom, whose identity will remain a secret until he is defeated, will return to action in the semifinals. The Phantom, who scored a rowdy triumph over Lucky Simunovich last week, will face the agile and scientific Ken Zealand. Kenneth is a clever wrestler and may well hand the Phantom a sound thrashing.

Unmask if Defeated
Under the terms of the contract, the Phantom, when defeated, must unmask in the ring and make his identity known to his conqueror and the fans.

Simunovich will strive to break back into the victory column when the popular Hawaiian heavyweight tackles the rowdy Canadian, Lou Newman, in tonight's opening match, which is slated to get underway at 8:30.

Pearl Christy will also be making his debut as the new matchmaker for the American Legion. Christy bought the local wrestling franchise from Gust Karras.

Christy has pledged to bring the nation's top-ranking heavyweights to the local armory ring and from early indications Pearl must mean business for tonight's card is a "bumbler" and could not be equalled in any city of any size.

Annual Tourney At Concordia

On March 4-5, St. Paul's College of Concordia will play host to the annual all-Concordia tournament at the Concordia high school gymnasium. This high caliber event climaxes the basketball season of four west central Lutheran colleges: St. John's college, Winfield, Kas.; Concordia Teachers' College, Seward, Neb.; Concordia College, St. Paul, Minn. and St. Paul's College, Concordia, Missouri.

This unusual tournament, held each year at a different one of these schools, has produced keen competition in the past and reports indicate that this year will be no exception: Favored to win their second tourney crown is Concordia of Seward. Sparked by a six-foot-five center and six-foot-four and six-foot-three forwards, this team has already racked up victories against powerful teams. Early in the season they drubbed Central Nebraska, 72-44, and recently they upset the Concordia Seminary quintet from St. Louis, 50-39.

Highest Rated Player
The most highly rated star of the tourney will be giant Jerry Otte, well known in Kansas circles as the high scoring ace of St. John's college. Holder of his conference all-time high scoring record, this six-foot-four center has been consistently pouring them in this year, his highest total being 34 points against the AAU's Ponca City Oilers. Also an outstanding drawing card is the high scoring forward of Concordia, St. Paul, Minn., Bill Zobel. Although hospitalized for the early portion of the season, he has returned to the floor, scoring upward of twenty points per game since his return.

The host team, St. Paul's college will be no pushover. Although their record would not indicate it, the Blue Jays have developed into a powerful aggregation. Chiefly responsible for this is the recent acquisition of two first rate players at the semester, Walt Lemmerman, a six-foot-three forward who transferred from Winfield's team and Luther Vogel, whom local people will remember was the academy's high scorer in 1947. After recently shattering Kemper, the team is anxious to meet her sister schools.

Lettuce Grower Wins 15-Round Title Fight

HONOLULU, March 2—(AP)—Bantam king Manuel Ortiz, 118, El Centro, Calif., lettuce grower, knocked Dado Marino, 116½, Hawaii's little brown doll, clear back to the flyweights last night in a 15 round title fight.

Ortiz, 32, and matched against a man his same age, battered Marino's face into a pulp in 15 round rounds. But never once was he able to floor the little Hawaiian Filipino, who took only the first and fifth rounds.

The gate was $49,312 from 10,579 fans.

Springfield Eliminated

SARASOTA, Fla., March 2—(AP)—George M. Trautman, president of the National Baseball Association, said today the minor leagues executive committee had upheld his ruling which eliminated Springfield, Mo., from the Western Association.

He explained the committee meeting in Miami Saturday agreed with his removing Springfield in favor of Leavenworth, Kas. He said the association had nine teams and one had to go.

The boss of the minor leagues said as far as he is concerned the removal of Springfield is a closed matter. Any further handling of the fight for a place in the Western Association is a matter for the league itself, he said.

He and Frank Shaughnessy, the president of the International league and chairman of the minor leagues executive committee, are here for the National Baseball Rules committee which meets tomorrow.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, March 2—(AP)—The next big heavyweight fight, it appears, will not be for the world championship but for the right to control the world championship.

And it should be a humdinger that won't end until there's a knockout.

First Tex Rickard and Jack Dempsey showed that the heavyweight championship is an extremely valuable possession. Mike Jacobs and Joe Louis added further proof. . . . Now it seems that the big money folks in the entertainment business finally have learned this fact and are trying to move in. . . .

Apprenticeship Get-Together

An apprenticeship get-together social hour, consisting of carpenters, sheet metal workers, bricklayers, painters, and contractors and union men representing these vocations were in attendance at the V. F. W. hall, 107 1/2 West Main street, Tuesday night.

The Apprenticeship Program which started about three years ago in Sedalia was formulated purposely to promote better training in various crafts, and understanding between co-workers.

In addition to the social get-together, addresses were given by Fred Cole, business agent of the sheet metal workers union of Kansas City, Pinkney Miller, coordinator of Vocational Education of the Smith-Cotton high school, Don A. Murphy of Kansas City, A. F. Schindler of Kansas City with the bureau of Apprenticeship, United States Department of Labor, and O. R. Catron, manager of the local employment security office.

Pinkney Miller showed films on the technical phases of apprenticeship from the E. I. DuPont de Nemours, Incorporated.

During a short business meeting, plans were discussed for ex-position to be held in the near future, tentatively set for April 1, at which time the work of the apprentices will be on display at the Missouri Public Service window.

The will of the late Fred E. Rush was filed Tuesday in the probate court.

He bequeathed all bonds and cash to his daughter, Mrs. T. C. Bush and directed that Mrs. Bush give one half of the income derived from the said bonds and money to his wife, Clara Rose Rush. Open First Theater For Disabled Veterans

Being wheeled to his seat is Machinery Repairman 3rd Class Anthony Sapanich of Detroit. The collapsible, adjustable stretcher permits patients to view stage in semi-reclining position.

Theater's sloping floor gives stretcher cases an unobstructed view of the stage. On the floor are stationary "bumpers" to prevent stretchers and wheel chairs from rolling.

At the U. S. Naval hospital at Great Lakes, Ill., the first theater to provide special accommodations for wheelchair, stretcher and crutch patients has been dedicated. It will hold 14 wheelchair or stretcher cases, 50 crutch patients and 567 persons who are able to walk. The theater was the dream of Capt. J. F. Hooker, medical officer in command of the naval hospital, who believes that adequate entertainment is almost as important as proper medical care.

Prior to the construction of the $60,000 theater the patients saw motion pictures and live entertainment in a gymnasium. (Photos by NEA-Acme staff, correspondent Thomas L. Shafer.)

Poles Expect College Boost
WARSAW, Poland—(AP)—Poland's ministry of education expects a 20 per cent boost in enrollment of students in colleges and universities during 1949.

The ministry estimated registrations would reach around 100,000, compared with the previous top post-war figure of 80,000.

The rapid reconstruction of educational institutions damaged or destroyed during the war is credited with steadily increasing facilities for expanded student enrollments.

A Wayward Son Who Had a Way With Girls And Gems, Jewel Thief Gerard Dennis' Charm Was His Undoing

By NEA Service

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.—(NEA)—Slick, suave Gerard Dennis had a way with pretty girls, an air of good breeding and a sharp eye for good jewels, just like Jimmy Valentine.

But Jimmy Valentine lived only in fiction, and got away with it. Dennis didn't possibly because he was (unlike the legendary Valentine) no Robin Hood; and more probably, because he tried it in real life, where the pitfalls are tougher to miss.

While it lasted, his career as a super-raffles in the mink coat and gem field was so successful that police, in retrospect, had to praise him. But they had the same sort of grudging praise 20 years ago for a fabulous society thief named Arthur Barry. His haul, when he was caught, was $2,000,000, three or four times better than Dennis' estimated loot, and who remembers Barry now?

While the 29-year-old Dennis waits in county jail here for police to figure how to divvy up the punishments for a trail of crime that ran from Westchester to Hollywood, his complicated story is being unravelled.

It began, according to Montreal police, as the wayward son of a respectable Canadian family.

Gerald Dennis: Barry was even slicker, but who remembers?

how to sell them for their real worth. And he found another foil. This time he was platonic about it. He told Gloria Horowitz Howard the gems were family jewels. He introduced Eleanor Farrell as his wife, and smooth-talked Gloria, who needed money, into helping him sell the jewels.

Then police crossed his trail again. In 1947 they caught Gloria in a Philadelphia jewelry store; Dennis, waiting outside, coolly walked away. By the time his unwitting accomplice led police to his New York apartment, Dennis was already gone. This time he left Eleanor Farrell to face the music.

Gloria was his big mistake. She found a picture of her for police. And while he transferred operations to Hollywood, posters were being circulated. This February Dennis turned up in Cleveland, posing as a jewelry salesman. A man who remembered seeing Dennis at a Hollywood wedding plus posters, plus police, was the final pitfall.

He was selling then, but he was getting ready for big-scale operations in the homes of Hollywood's great. Had he gotten away in Cleveland, his operation plan probably would have followed one he used in Westchester.

There, for a two-night operation that netted him something like $35,000, Dennis began at a big, formal cocktail party. While the party was in full swing, he slipped in from a terrace and helped himself to a $16,500 diamond clip. Then he appraised a jeweled and mink-coated guest as his next victim, followed her home to find her address, and went back the next night to collect $18,000 worth of gems and furs.

At first, police didn't realize what they had trapped in Cleveland. But when they discovered the Hollywood branch of the Dennis enterprise and went to his west coast address, they found his last foil.

Dennis had managed to charm Betty Ritchie, too, and she lived with him under the illusion he was Jerome McKay, a McGill university graduate who would some day marry her. Dennis was too polished, of course, to mention his days at old Burwash—the Industrial Farm in Ontario.

Sovereignty to Be Transferred

BATAVIA, Java, March 2—(AP)—

The Dutch announced Tuesday night they will transfer sovereignty to all Indonesia by July 1, regardless of whether Indonesian Republican leaders agree.

The reference was to imprisoned leaders of the republic of Indonesia. Without Dutch permission, they proclaimed sections of Java, Sumatra and Madoera a sovereign republic months ago. The Dutch army last December overran the republic and imprisoned the leaders, including President Soekarno and Premier Mohamed Hatta.

Jet Planes Hit the Silk to Slow Down

Experimenting with the use of parachutes to slow down fast jet planes, a Boeing XB-47 stratojet comes in for a landing, in Seattle, Wash., trailing its chute behind it. The "deceleration parachute," nicknamed "brako," is internally stowed under the tail and released by the pilot just before landing. It enables the fast jets to land on shorter runways.

the country a great deal of money," Judge Frank M. Padden of superior court observed.

The decree was granted on Mrs. Borin's suit alleging cruelty. It was the fifth suit she filed.

Under Judge Padden's decree Mrs. Borin is to receive $250 a month alimony and $250 a month support for their daughter, Bonny Joy, 7, who will be in her mother's custody.
